Stay Productive this Holiday Season

'Tis the season of holiday gatherings and busy times once again! For many of us it's a time that we're busy seeing friends for parties, planning and preparing holiday meals, and prepping our home for out-of-town visitors. There are so many extra tasks to get done in a day! To help you make this time of year as productive as possible, we're gifting you with useful tips, tools, advice and resources in this month's newsletter.

We let you in on one of the secrets to stress-free holiday shopping in Save Time & Money by Holiday Shopping Online. Cross going to the mall off of your long holiday to-do list this year!

If you've got much on your mind and you're concerned about getting through your workload this month, check out our great email productivity tips in Do Something Big before Email and accomplish way more than you thought possible...before those office parties get going! If you're looking for more great productivity tips, Debbie was recently interviewed about her book, Six Word Lesson to be More Productive. Read the interview for more insights and pick up your copy today - it also makes a thoughtful gift or stocking stuffer.

Cooking and baking are also a big part of the holiday season that can easily take over entire evenings and weekends. Give your pantry an easy overhaul like the one detailed in From Closet to Pantry, and make sure you have the organized space you need to create delicious holiday gifts or treats for everyone on your list.

And If December is making you feel overwhelmed with all the giving, cooking, baking and shopping, Simply Placed is here to help. Let us know if we can be a resource to you this season!

Do you have a topic or organizing question that you would like us to blog about? We love to hear from you, so please tell us what you'd like to read about!
