Organize for Happy Holidays

The holidays are fast approaching. Are you jumping for joy or trembling with fear? For many, Halloween marks the start of the holiday season. If you were spooked more by this idea than by the neighborhood ghosts and goblins trick-or-treating at your door last week, you are in good company. Take some time this month to prepare and organize so that you can enjoy the upcoming holiday season.

Though the holidays should be filled with joy, many people are instead overwhelmed by the stress of planning and shopping and obligations. There are many things that need to be done around the holidays - menu and party planning, travel arrangements, holiday cards, decorating, shopping and wrapping, not to mention keeping up with work and the everyday responsibilities we have year round. Do you approach the holidays with an organized plan or are you left wondering how you will manage all of the tasks and still make this season special?

Get off on the right foot with your holiday shopping this year by joining us Thursday November 14th for our The 7th Annual Pre-Holiday Shopping Open House.
